

SMART SHOPPING

perfect fit

Whether you're on the fence, watching your wallet or intent on going green, we've got the right wedding ring for you.

Undecided

JEAN DOUSSET DIAMONDS

Try before you buy, so to speak: Purchase a competitively priced imitation before investing big bucks in the real deal. All 12 styles in the Replica collection (pictured) are 14-karat white gold with cubic-zirconia center stones equivalent to 1.15- to 3-carat diamonds. If you choose to buy the genuine diamond ring, the price of the replica is applied toward your purchase. From $269.

Value-conscious

CRISLU For bling without the cha-ching, choose one of 17 rings from this budding brand, whose cubic-zirconia stones are cut to the exact specifications required for fine diamonds. The company claims even jewelers have difficulty distinguishing Crislu CZs from real ice. From $72.

Eco-minded

RING FINGER STUDIO If, like starlet Natalie Portman, you want to flaunt an eco-friendly rock, look to this Miami boutique. Its specialty: custom engagement rings and wedding bands utilizing 100 percent recycled metals and conflict-free diamonds. More than 150 styles are available in platinum, gold and palladium. Engagement rings from $2,500; bands from $400. — Erika Hueneke

COSTA RICA

GREAT HEIGHTS

Weddings in Manuel Antonio have a whole new outlook at PUNTO DE VISTA, one of the first villas in the country constructed specifically for events. This 10-bedroom escape has everything to facilitate parties of 15 to 115, from an elevator and an industrial kitchen to wiring for professional sound throughout its five stories. Nestled on 2 1/2 acres of rainforest, the villa sleeps up to 27 and commands breathtaking views of the surrounding jungle and Pacific Ocean beyond. Weddings are held on the beach, just a short walk from the door, or on the rooftop deck. Dine under the stars, then move to the air-conditioned ballroom to dance the night away. Buyouts from $1,750; weddings custom. — Larissa Banting

HOT DEALS

honeymoons on the house

Host your event with one of these haute hotel brands, and they'll throw in a free honeymoon. Yes, please! — Brooke Showell

HYATT

A wedding at a participating Hyatt hotel earns couples the postnuptial treat of two to five free nights (depending on the total cost of the wedding — from $10,000 up) at any Hyatt location worldwide. Possibilities range from Vail's Park Hyatt Beaver Creek (pictured) to the Hyatt Regency Aruba.

ROCKRESORTS

Booking a wedding (with $25,000 or more of food and beverage) at any of the 12 idyllic RockResorts properties qualifies you for a five-day stay at any fellow RockResorts outpost. One option: Wed under the desert sky of La Posada de Sante Fe, then escape to the Landings St. Lucia (pictured).

ROSEWOOD

This brand has paired seven North American hotels with seven tropical resorts for couples who spend $15,000 to $50,000, minimum, depending on the property. So host your nuptials at, say, the Carlyle, in New York, and earn two free nights at a dreamy escape like Antigua's Jumbo Bay (pictured).